

Name: _____

Sold* | Part Two

Page 34-47, “The price of a loan” to “Nightfall”

1. What has Lakshmi’s mother sacrificed in order to compensate for their losses during the monsoon?

2. What type of person is Lakshmi’s stepfather? Provide two pieces of textual evidence and explain what they say about him.

3. Lakshmi’s mother claims that a man like her husband “is better than no man at all” (38). Is she right? Why do Lakshmi and her family think their luck is changing? How do we, and Lakshmi, know that this is only a temporary victory?

Page 48-59, “A tiny earthquake” to “A new world”

4. Where is Lakshmi going? How does Lakshmi feel about this? How does her mother feel about this?

5. How does Lakshmi feel as she leaves for the city with “Auntie” Bilma? What does she have that gives her strength as she leaves behind everything she knows?

Page 60-64, “What I carry” to “The city”

6. Respond to the chapter, “What I carry.”

7. The text in this chapter is structured in a very specific manner. What does this format do for the entry? Why does the structure then shift so sharply at the end?

--